04/29/99 PREEMPTION

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

04/18/99 "A Legacy Of Love"- focuses on Erin Tierney, a Dallas wife, mother and venture capitalist in her 30's suffering from terminal cancer who experienced what she described as a 'near death' experience which transformed her life. She put her energies to work on spiritual development, co-writing a book about preparing for death practically, emotionally and spiritually, and making video advice tapes for her young daughter Peyton, which Peyton could view in the future as needed. The broadcast deals with Erin and her husband Doug in what they have described as their happiest years, the final years and how their affirmative use of time motivated and changed the lives of those who came in close contact with Erin in any way. (E.P. John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)

60 MINUTES II

04/07/99 "Milosevic"- a profile of Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic, chronicling his rise to power, his association with the Serbs in Kosovo and the organized genocide for which he is responsible. (C: Bob Simon - P: Dragan Milhallovich)
"The Deadliest Prison"- a followup to "The Deadliest Prison" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/30/97), a report on the California State Correctional Institution in Corcoran, California where prison officials and guards were accused of orchestrating inmate fights and betting on the results. The followup consists of an expose of what seems to have been an official coverup of inmate rape by other inmates -- supposedly facilitated by guards in order to punish unruly prisoners. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Chris Riback)
"Sir Elton"- an interview with singer/pianist/composer Elton John. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
"Uncommon Sense"- Kosovo - Slobodan Milosovec's offer of a cease-fire to honor Orthodox Easter (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 04/14/99 "The Minister's Blessing"- Reverend Michael Bray, a Lutheran minister, writes and preaches that people have a God-given right to kill doctors and nurses who perform abortions. Bray, who spent four years in prison for conspiracy in ten anti-abortion bombings, holds an annual meeting of hard-core anti-abortion militants. So far, authorities have been unable to prove that Michael Bray is the leader of a nationwide conspiracy but they are keeping him under surveillance. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson, Shawn Efran)
"Family Ties"- a report on the Hairstons, a family of the Old South, who owned dozens of plantations and thousands of slaves. Many of the slaves took the Hairston name and evidence shows that a number have a blood relationship to the family. Despite claims of mistreatment by descendants of former Hairston slaves, the black and white branches of the family have still managed to stay connected. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Barbara Pierce)
"The 'Trashing' of Clayton Hartwig"- followup to "The 'Trashing' of Clayton Hartwig" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 10/20/91), a report on the events that prompted the U.S. Navy to apologize to the family of Gunner's Mate Second Class Clayton Hartwig, who had initially been held responsible for the explosion aboard the U.S.S. Iowa in April 1989 which killed him and 46 of his shipmates. The followup consists of interviews with Dan Meyer, a former crew member on the U.S.S. Iowa; Kathy Kubicina, Hartwig's sister; Larry Seaquist, a former Captain of the ship; and Charles Thompson, producer of the original 60 MINUTES segment (C: Mike Wallace - P: Gail Eisen)
"Uncommon Sense"- sterilized words used to describe the Kosovo crisis (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 04/21/99 "Unsafe Haven"- CBS News' year-long undercover investigation of Charter Behavioral Health Systems, the nation's largest chain of psychiatric hospitals, focuses on Charter's children's wards, where CBS found evidence of deaths, injuries and hospital falsification of medical records in institutions from Massachusetts to California. Charter has 91 hospitals in 32 states across the country, which admit about 60,000 children and adolescents every year and take in more than $300 million of taxpayer money annually. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren)
- 04/28/99 "Rage"- in 1997, 16-year-old Eric Ramsey walked into his school in Bethel, Alaska, pulled out a 12-gauge shotgun and fatally wounded a fellow student and the principal. The report, focusing on what provoked the murders and what might have been done to prevent them, includes interviews with Eric Ramsey; Reyne Athanas, a teacher at Bethel; psychiatrist Dr. John Smith; Renee Erb, who prosecuted the case; and Don Ramsey, the boy's father, who had himself served time in prison following a violent confrontation at the Anchorage Times' office. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
"The Forgotten Veterans"- a followup to "The Forgotten Veterans" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 02/26/89), a report on the women, mostly nurses, whose courage and heroic efforts while serving in Vietnam have gone unrecognized. The followup consists of interviews with three of these nurses who talk about what has happened to them since Vietnam. (C: Morley Safer - P: Barbara Dury)
"It's Not Unusual"- interview with singer Tom Jones who, at almost 60, is still a hit with women of three generations. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Deborah Thomson)
"Uncommon Sense"- blame the boys who did the shooting in Littleton, not anything else (C: Jimmy Tingle)
